

Understanding the requirements of ISO 17025

GOALS

- Discover the requirements of the standard in order to better apply and comply with them.
- Understanding the vocabulary of the standard
- Understanding the structure and usefulness of the standard
- Understanding the organizational tools for managing a laboratory

PROGRAMME

- Introduction and vocabulary
- General requirements and structure
- Resource requirements
- Process requirements
- Organizational requirements

PREREQUISITES

- Being involved in a laboratory
- Seeing the value in understanding how a laboratory works

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Any professional involved in the planning, implementation or maintenance of the ISO 10012 SMM.

Please contact us for any information regarding the conditions of reception and access for people with disabilities.

DURATION

3 days (21 hours)

PRICES

Inter-company training: 2 000,00 € HT/participant (3 participants minimum)

In-house training: please contact us

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ACCESS

INTER: Registration is open until two weeks before the training date.

INTRA: training can be provided one month after acceptance of the quote (for information purposes only).

METHODS USED

The training is based on alternating theoretical input, games, examples and/or practical cases.

Trainees will need to bring a laptop.

A folder is given to participants at the end of the session.

(containing the theoretical principles stated during the training and the exercise materials).

EVALUATION METHODS

Trainees' knowledge acquisition is generally validated by a quiz.

It can also be assessed using other methods (at the trainer's discretion and/or in agreement with the client).

At the end of the training, a certificate is issued based on the results of the assessments.

